that the girl in question is maintained in good health and that her conduct is quite satisfactory. The budget allotment for the grant-in-aid provided for during the current year under Imprest is the same as that of last year and a sum of Rs500/- out of this allotment is intended for the maintenance of such orphans. The Dy Commissioner's recommendation can therefore be considered without any difficulty for Fcn-do.

As regards the alternative proposal of the Dy Inspectress to hand over the girl to some other orphanage which may undertake to protect her without any cost, it is respectfully submitted that there is only one other hundred orphanage [illegible]

Both the child in question has remained in the Trichy orphanage for a number of years and all along maintained good health and satisfactory conduct, and it would be undesirable to change her present surroundings for new ones in Baravangudi, however efficient the Orphanage in the latter place is, merely on account of a small cost to Govt.
